14TH ANNUAL POLE VAULT CHAMPIONSHIPS COMES TO OLD TOWN CLOVIS

Old Town Clovis Farmers' Market hosts USATF Development Competition

CLOVIS, CA – On Friday, August 3, 2007 beginning at 5:30 p.m. world class athletes from across the country will vie for the top spot at the North American Pole Vault Championships at the Old Town Clovis Farmer's Market. Join the Business Organization of Old Town Clovis, the North American Pole Vault Association, Mount San Antonio College Track & Field Program, Fresno State Track & Field Club and the USA Track & Field Pole Vault Development in supporting these athletes and the USA Track & Field programs.

This is one of the most exciting events in track and field. It demands from the pole vaulter the speed of a sprinter, the strength of a weight lifter, the agility of a gymnast and the courage of a stunt man. Come to Old Town Clovis to watch the No. 1 male vaulter from China and the elite women vaulters from USA Track and Field fly through the air, while enjoying the evening strolling through the market for fresh fruit, vegetables, flowers, herbs, and nuts from the local certified growers. Family members of all ages can enjoy interaction with the athletes as well as the usual market entertainment.

The restaurants and shops of Old Town Clovis will be open during the Farmers' Market, providing additional dining and shopping pleasures.
